

The Victorian Museum Awards recognise and celebrate excellence in museum practice. They seek to reward the museums and individuals who strengthen Victoria's museum industry through outstanding work and a commitment to best practice.

The Awards for Organisations acknowledge excellence and significant achievements by museums and their teams.

Nominations are invited from organisations based in Victoria that demonstrate high achievement in the three main areas of public museum operations as outlined in the National Standards for Australian Museums and Galleries: Managing the Museum; Involving People & Communities; and Developing a Significant Collection.

There are four categories in the Awards for Organisations:

- The Archival Survival Award for Volunteer-Run Museums (up to 1 EFT paid staff member)
- The Archival Survival Award for Small Museums (2-7 Paid Staff)
- The Museums Australia (Victoria) Award for Medium Museums (8-50 Paid Staff)
- The Museums Australia (Victoria) Award for Large Museums (51+ Paid Staff)

NOMINATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY 5PM ON FRIDAY 29 JUNE 2018

ORGANISATIONS

Guidelines Page 2 of 2

IMPORTANT

Projects and operational activities referenced in nominations must have commenced or completed within 12 months prior to the closing date (June 29, 2018).

Nominations must be received on the nomination form and must include at least 3 high resolution (300dpi) digital images (these could be of the organisation's buildings, exhibition spaces, objects from the collection, etc.). Nominations may also be accompanied by support material such as catalogues; additional photographs; newspaper clippings; videos; brochures; and business plans (see "Support Material" section on the nomination form).

Organisations are permitted to self-nominate. In all matters relating to the judging of the Victorian Museum Awards, the judges' decision is final.

Award categories: check your museum's Equivalent Full Time (EFT) staffing levels to ensure you nominate in the correct size category.

ELIGIBILITY

All public museums located within Victoria are eligible to nominate in the 2018 Victorian Museum Awards.

This includes museums of science, history and art, libraries, historical societies, galleries, zoological and botanical gardens, keeping places, and any other organisation that acquires, conserves, and communicates material evidence of people and their environment. In all matters relating to eligibility the decision of the organisers is final.
